

Read & Go Adult Program Trip New Bern, NC

Wednesday, March 21, 2018

Do you enjoy a good love story in a beautiful setting? Come with us as we travel to the riverfront town of New Bern, NC. We will be leaving from the Anne Gordon Active Adult Center at Millbrook Exchange Park (1901 Spring Forest Road) at 7:30am.

Historic New Bern is a charming riverfront town set along the picturesque Trent and Neuse Rivers, and centrally located along the North Carolina coast. Filled with quaint boutiques and breathtaking riverfront views, this town truly offers something for everyone. New Bern is also the setting for the book A Bridge Apart, by Joey Jones. The trip begins at Union Point Park. The park sits on the river edge with amazing views, has benches scattered throughout the park and a waterfront walkway. This park plays a supporting role in the book's story and brings the story to life. We will enjoy a group lunch buffet at the Baker's Kitchen followed by a discussion and time with the author, Joey Jones. Following lunch, the group will have time to visit the Pepsi Museum and store, which is the original location where Pepsi was created and developed in 1893 by pharmacist Caleb Bradham. You will have time to explore New Bern's downtown on your own before we head back to Raleigh.

The group will take a rest stop on the way home and arrive back at the Anne Gordon Center in Raleigh at approximately 7:00pm.
